

New Zealand & Australia

Rookie

The Rookie features a double bed in the back with an annexe for extra 'living space, plus a camping table, a couple of stools and a little esky to keep the drinks cool.

HiTop

If you are after more of a 'campervan', the HiTop is the cheapest of the range. It features basic facilities such as a fridge, gas stove and microwave. Great for a couple on a cruisey trip up the coast.

Voyager

The Voyager is a very economical option for a family of four, without bathroom facilities. With two large double beds and automatic transmission, the Voyager is very popular.

Elite

The Elite is absolute luxury for a couple. Large double bed, toilet, shower, fridge, microwave, gas stove – you name it, the Elite has it. The reverse cycle air-conditioning makes this campervan comfortable all year round.

Explorer

For a couple wanting a bit more room the Explorer is the way to go. Featuring all of the facilities of the Elite, the Explorer has two double beds, which means you can use the roof canopy bed, leaving dining area permanently set up. Great for families too.

Escape

The first Britz vehicle designed especially for a 'party of five'! HUGE beds, automatic transmission, fitted sun awning and a TV/DVD to entertain the kids. This vehicle really does have all the bells and whistles.

Frontier

Mum, Dad & the kids, or even three couples will enjoy the open road in this campervan, complete with mini kitchen and bathroom. With two living/dining areas there is plenty of room for everyone to enjoy their own space. The large windows around the living area will provide you with a great view each morning.

Bushcamper 4WD (V8)

Become a road warrior in this 4WD beast! The Bushcamper is great for 2 adults and a child and features basic camping necessities, including an esky fridge, portable gas stove and portable solar shower, to conquer the outback.

Safari 4WD

Go wild in this true outback 4WD. With a cleverly designed slideout kitchen unit plus a large tent, awning, esky fridge and roof rack, a group of five will have mountains of fun in this new Britz!

Adventurer 4WD

This unique 4WD features one large two-man tent on the roof, with a three-man ground tent for the other travellers. The solar shower, portable gas stove, slide-out fridge and heaps of bonus extras like an awning, camping table and stools make this a fun camping option for a couple or group of friends.
